What It's All About

Where's the Beef? In Hamburg, that's for sure! The all-beef patty will be in the spotlight during the annual Taste of Hamburg-er Festival on Saturday, September 5th. This downtown Hamburg event is celebrating its 23rd year of serving up patties to locals and visitors from as far away as Australia.

What started as a three-block festival to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the burger has turned into an eight-block event featuring four stages of non-stop entertainment, burger eating competitions, beer and wine gardens, children's activities, quality artisans and crafters, and of course, LOTS of burgers.

3rd, 4th, Pine, and State Streets in the downtown business district will be closed to vehicular traffic to allow over 80 restaurants, caterers, and community organizations to grill their most tantalizing burgers and whip up sensational side dishes for thousands of visitors to enjoy. Creativity and unique combinations are the norm, as vendors vie for the Best Burger award determined by panels of "food junkie" judges. Of course, winners of the contests get bragging rights for the year, in addition to the awards presented by a panel of judges. Not only are there burgers, but numerous other concessionaires sell a variety of tasty foods that pair well with burgers: fries, pierogies, roasted corn, mac and cheese, salads, funnel cakes, ice cream and other desserts just to name a few.

The festival is organized and hosted by Our Town Foundation, Hamburg's non-profit community revitalization organization, who is proud to present this family-fun festival that offers free admission and is affordable for all to attend. Festival proceeds benefit revitalization projects within the Hamburg community.

"Steer" yourself to Hamburg, walk your "buns" to the downtown, and "relish" the experience. There is no "bull" about it - you will have an "udder-ly" great time and possibly "ketch-up" with some friends. But remember, come early and come hungry!

Don't Forget Your Moo-licious Merchandise

Merchandise Stand
is located at 8 South 4th Street in front of the Hamburg Strand Theater

Are you looking for fun and ridiculous hamburger related merchandise?! Of course, you are at the Taste of Hamburg-er Festival! We have everything you need to obnoxiously show off your love for the hamburger, including this year's new "It's Time to Patty" t-shirts in a variety of colors and sizes ranging from small to 3X. Our specialty items include baseball caps, grilling flippers, plushies, stickers, fun squishies and building blocks for the kids. And of course, we will be selling everyone's favorite novelty item - the huge hamburger hats. Quantities are limited so be sure to stop by the merchandise stand early for the best selection.

Parking

When you arrive at the festival, parking is available in several designated areas for $10 per vehicle. Official festival parking areas are located at the Hamburg Area High School and Hamburg Area Middle School (701 Windsor Street), and lots near Pine and 2nd Streets (follow the parking signs). Parking at these locations gives back and supports the festival. Most of these lots are within walking distance of the festival area; however, continuous shuttle service will be provided from the High School and Middle School lots. However, the shuttles are not equipped to accommodate wheelchairs. (See handicap parking)

For those traveling north and south via Route 61, the Hamburg Area High School and Middle School are your better choice.

For those traveling via Interstate 78, take Hamburg exit #30 and proceed to the downtown, or take the Route 61 South exit, and travel a short distance to either the Grand Street or 4th Street Hamburg exits, and follow the signs for festival parking.

If you would prefer to find your own free, on street parking, we suggest that you get to the festival early because the spaces go quickly!

HANDICAP PARKING

Handicap parking is available at the following areas:

Hamburg Municipal Center located at 61 N. 3rd Street. Entrance to the lot is from Apple Alley, which can be accessed from Island Street. There will be no entrance to the lot from 3rd Street as it will be blocked with vendors.

First United Church of Christ located at the intersection of 3rd & Pine Streets. Entry to the parking lot must be made from Peach Alley.

Premier Care Family Dental (Theodore E. Dando, DMD) parking lot, 443 State Street.

Handicapped guests are also welcome to be dropped off at the blocked intersections; however, your vehicle must be moved immediately to one of the parking lots.

Only guests with handicapped placards will be allowed to park in the designated areas. All others will be towed at the owner's expense.

PLEASE, NO PETS AT THE FESTIVAL!

For the safety of your own pet and other festival attendees, the festival committee is asking that you leave your pets in the comfort of their home. It is a long, hot day for our animal friends, and with the large crowds of attendees your pet may become apprehensive and respond with abnormal behavior. In addition, they are constantly surrounded by tempting foods and at times have been known to snatch a burger.

7 reasons why:

- Large crowds and noise cause stress
- Heat related illness
- No ample water sources
- Other aggressive dogs
- Children with food in their hands
- Hot macadam = burned paws
- No place to relieve themselves other than the streets where food is being served and people are walking

Please note that pet owners who choose to bring their furry friends to the event are fully responsible for the actions of their pets!

Entertainment Highlights

Cody Tyler & Gypsy Convoy

Cody Tyler & Gypsy Convoy are bringing their award-winning "Black Dirt Country" sound to this year's Taste of Hamburg-er Festival!

Rooted in Pennsylvania's Appalachian heartland, Cody Tyler draws inspiration from generations of blue-collar family history, the open road, and the rugged landscapes of the Keystone State. His songs reflect the coal towns, farmland, mountains, hunting camps, and working-class stories that have shaped his life, creating a country sound that blends traditional influences with Southern rock, Americana, and a distinctly Pennsylvania edge.

Cody Tyler & Gypsy Convoy have earned plenty of recognition along the way. In 2023, the band won two Central Pennsylvania Music Awards for Album of the Year and Best Country Band. Between 2020 and 2025, Cody and the band received a combined nine CPMA nominations, including a 2025 nomination for Best Male Country Artist. Cody was also a Top 150 vocalist on Season 14 of NBC's The Voice.

In 2024, the band won the I-105 WIOV Showdown in the Park, earning the opportunity to perform at Fall Fest alongside national artists including Cole Swindell, Parmalee, Gabby Barrett, Matt Stell, and Kelsey Hart.

Their debut album, Stare Your Demons Down, showcases the band's self-described "Black Dirt Country" sound, inspired by Pennsylvania's fertile farmland and Appalachian coal country.

Festival goers won't want to miss Cody Tyler & Gypsy Convoy bringing their high-energy, Pennsylvania-grown country sound to downtown Hamburg!

GirlCrue

Get ready to rock with GirlCrue when this powerhouse all-female band takes the festival stage!

Hailing from the Lehigh Valley, GirlCrue is an all-female party band known for powerhouse vocals, tight harmonies, and an energetic live show that keeps the crowd moving. Performing together since 2014, the group brings decades of combined musical experience to the stage, with influences spanning the 1970s, 1980s, 1990s, and today.

GirlCrue features Paula Battavio on guitar and vocals, Karan McGee on bass and vocals, Judy Brunst-Belletieri on keyboards and vocals, and Kelly Adams on drums. With three powerhouse vocalists and four talented musicians, each member brings her own style and musical background to the group while blending seamlessly into GirlCrue's signature sound.

Their diverse setlist combines rock favorites, dance hits, funk, and party classics, creating a show designed to get audiences singing, dancing, and having a great time. As one of the Lehigh Valley's standout all-female rock bands, GirlCrue has built a strong following throughout the region with their musicianship, stage presence, and contagious energy.

Get ready to turn up the volume and join the party when GirlCrue takes the stage at the 23rd Annual Taste of Hamburg-er Festival!
